Today's Prayer

Heavenly Father, We thank you for the privilege of communion with you, of a covenant relationship with you, based not on our merit, what we could do to earn our way to you. But based solely on your mercy, what you have done in the body and blood of Jesus to make this kind of communion possible. We thank you, we praise you for the privilege of communion with you.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Do This In Remembrance of Me

Remembrance is an important aspect of Christianity. As believers we are encouraged and strengthened by remembering the faith and deeds of those who have gone before us. We remember that ours is an ancient faith, we remember the promises of God's word, and as we do so our confidence is built in trusting God and living in his truth.

There are several places in Scripture where we are encouraged to remember, but the commandment from Jesus spoken on the night he was betrayed stands out from the rest. This is a deep and vibrant meaning to this instruction and this remembrance continues to be a cornerstone of our faith.

"And he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and gave it to them, saying, This is my body given for you; do this in remembrance of me, In the same way, after the supper he took the cup, saying, This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you" (Luke 22:19-20).
