Today's Prayer

God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change; courage to change the things I can; and wisdom to know the difference. Living one day at a time; enjoying one moment at a time; accepting hardships as the path-way to peace. Taking, as he did, this sinful world, as it is, not as I would have it. Trusting that He will make all things right if I surrender to His will. So that I may be reasonably happy in this life, and supremely happy with Him forever and ever in the next.

In Jesus Name, Amen

Three Good Reasons To Serve Your Church

Before you say no when asked to take a job in your church, think about more reasons why you should say yes. There are at least three good reasons why every Christian ought to serve the church:

1. Your Christian life needs a service outlet. Nothing helps you to grow as a Christian like putting your faith into practice by teaching, singing, ushering, or serving on a church committee.
2. You have a testimony to share with others. The reason why you are asked to serve is that your fellow Christians have confidence in you and your ability. Your Christian testimony will be a good influence in the lives of those whom you lead and serve.
3. Your church needs you. There is no way for a church to get its work done unless members volunteer their time to teach and lead. When you accept a place of responsibility, you help your church move forward in the name of Christ.
