Today's Prayer

O Lord, Sometimes I feel my faith is weak and shallow. But I want more, oh Lord, show me how. Help me to trust and depend on you to guide me. Give me hunger for your Word, a thirst for your presence, and the courage to live as a discipline of Christ. Show me, oh Lord, where I must put my faith to test to make it authentic and strong. Above all, oh Lord, reveal to my heart how great faith comes to the humble, as God is all I have and all I need.

In Jesus' Name, Amen

Great Is Thy Faithfulness

As a Christian, it is important to be faithful to God. It is one thing to simply believe in Him, but another to be faithful to Him. Focus on the goodness of God as it is revealed to us in Scripture. When you look to the Word for signs of his faithfulness, you'll find it on every page.

If you want to learn to appreciate the faithfulness of God, you need to experience the reality of his mercy first hand. His mercy never comes to an end. It is new every morning. This means that you can begin every day in a right relationship with him, in fellowship with him.

This is about so much more than just having your sins washed away. It's about living each day in his presence, experiencing his peace, his power, his victory, his hope—in spite of the circumstances.

How do we live with a Great Is Thy Faithfulness perspective on life? You find it by looking for it. Each and every day he extends his promise once again: "I am near to all who call on me". When you make it a habit to seek God's presence every day, you begin to see evidence of his faithfulness all around you.

Great is Thy faithfulness,

MORNING BY MORNING
NEW MERCIES I SEE;

All I have needed
Thy hand hath provided—
Great is Thy faithfulness,
Lord, unto me!
