Today's Prayer

Lord, I believe that You created me for a special purpose, and that You have a perfect plan for my life. I ask that You fulfill Your Purpose for me, and help me to do my part by earnestly seeking You daily through prayer and Your Word. Thank You that as I seek You each day that You will guide me along the best pathway for my life.

In Jesus Name, Amen

Jeremiah 29:11

God knows all and has authority over everything that was, is and is to come. He is not surprised by anything, and in fact, He has made a plan for each of us. Even though we still make mistakes and sin, God declares that he still has good things in store for those who love Him.

None of us wants God's plan to include struggles, but sometimes it's for our own good and growth; sometimes it's because God has made us strong enough to help others who need Him.

God doesn't always provide an immediate escape. But why? Because, like the butterfly grows strong enough to fly by straining against the cocoon, we also need to preserve through difficult times to become stronger and grow our faith.

God doesn't promise riches, or perfect health, or a problem-free life. But, He does promise to be with us, to comfort us in times of need, and that we will rejoice with Him for eternity in heaven. And God keeps his promises to us in the work of Jesus, His son who brings us peace with God.

I know the plans I have in mind for you, declares the LORD; they are plans for peace, not disaster, to give you a future filled with Hope.
