2 Corinthians 9:13-15

“Because of the service by which you have proved yourself, others will praise God for the obedience that accompanies your confession of the gospel of Christ, and for your generosity in sharing with them and with everyone else. And in their prayers for you their hearts will go out to you, because of the surpassing grace God has given you. Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!”

Feed My Sheep

In fields of green and pastures wide,
Our pastors walk with humble stride,
Their hearts are filled with a burning flame,
To follow God's command, their only aim.

“Feed my sheep,” the Lord did say,
And so our pastors tread the way,
To bring God's love to all who seek,
And give them food for soul and beak.

They tend their flock with love and care,
With words of hope, they are always there,
To guide and lead them through the night,
And show them the path that's right.

With every sermon, every prayer,
Our pastor's word rings loud and clear,
Their faith and love a shining light,
To help their sheep in darkest night.

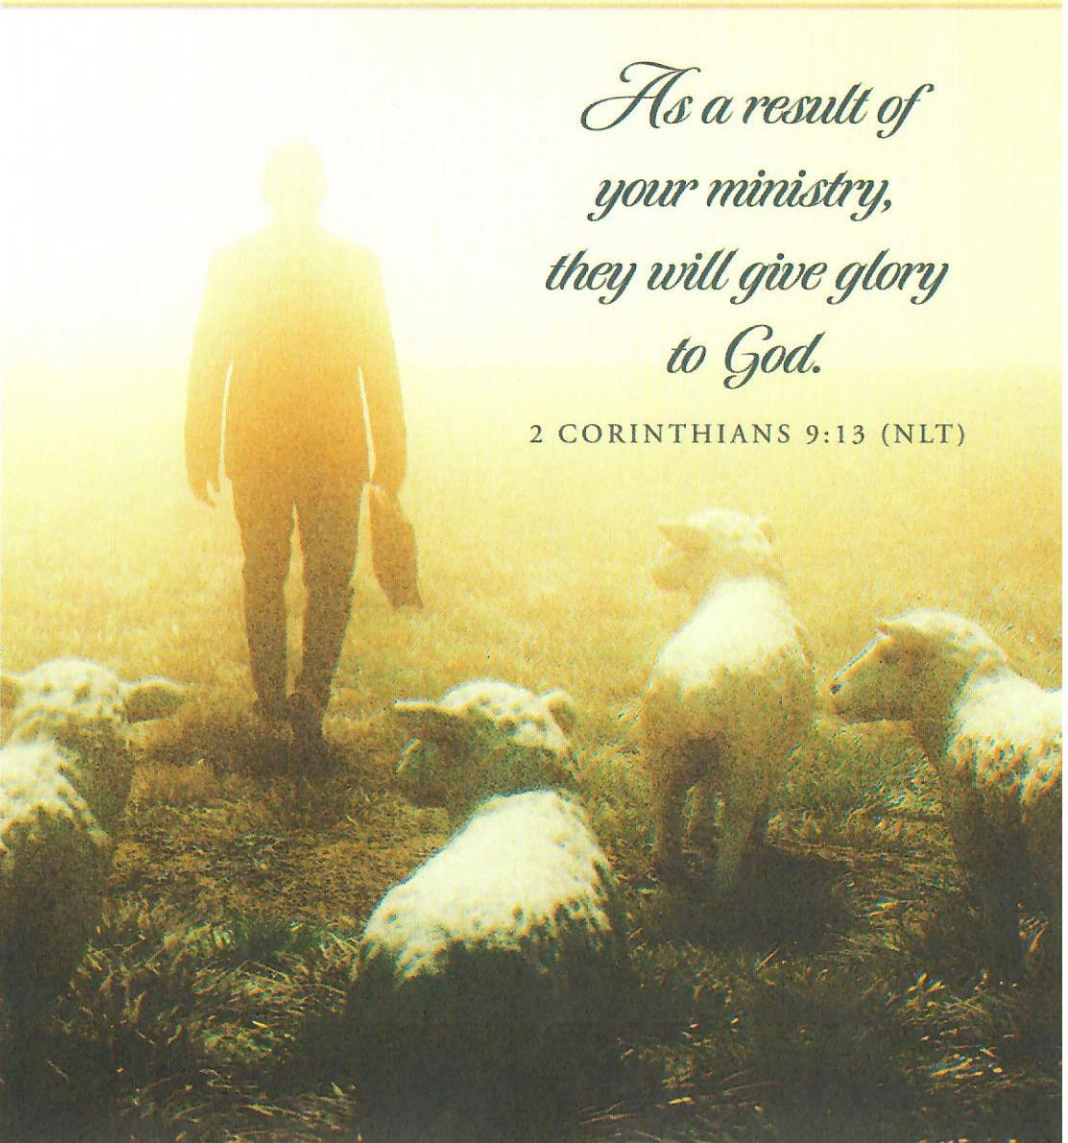

Through trails, struggles, and pain,
Our pastor's love will still remain,
A beacon of hope to all who weep,
For they obey the Lord's command to “feed my sheep.”

And when their work on earth is done,
And they are called to join the Heavenly Son,
They will leave behind a legacy so grand,
Of a life well-lived, by God's command.
